

Digby County shipyard honoured in Ottawa

METEGHAN RIVER — Nova Scotia's A.F. Theriault & Son Ltd. is the recipient of a national francophone entrepreneurship award.

The Digby County shipyard won the Laurier de la PME 2009 prize in the processing category at a gala held Saturday at the Chateau Laurier in Ottawa, said a news release.

The award recognizes excellence in francophone entrepreneurship across Canada through a national competition held every two years, said the release.
